

Culture and Tradition – Base for the Future

20 January 2011

“Today’s generation has to implement the suggestions given, time to time, by our culture and tradition”, said Dr. K. Melkar, professor at Kannada Research Institute, Karnatak university Dharwad. In a special lecture organised by P. C. Jabin Science College, Hubli, with the sponsorship of Karnataka state Archaeological Department and Heritage Club, he said “The values of life and the culture advocated and practiced from the time of King Ashoka till the day of freedom fighters are pertinent today”.

“Folk literature, inscriptions, lyrics and vachanas have provided us a very rich tradition, on which, without ignoring them, we need to build and foster our civilization,” he added.

Prof. V. B. Hiremath, Principal, Grade – I, who presided over the function, said, “We would not be so cultured if we did not have the history of culture”. He suggested the students to “Cultivate the culture and be useful in developing our society”.

Organiser of the Heritage club, Smt. S. S. Belavadi welcomed and introduced the speaker. Prof. S. B. Hiremath, Principal, PU Section, Smt. S. A. Halemani, Principal, BCA Section, Prof. S. B. Nadagouda, Vice President, College Forum and College Staff and students were present at the function. Miss Nandadeep Gokul proposed vote of thanks. Miss. Geeta Madivalar compered the programme.
